

10th Workshop on Seedling Physiology and Growth Problems in Oak Plantings

The objective of the workshop is to bring together interested foresters, forest scientists, and tree physiologists to informally exchange ideas on seedling physiology and growth problems in oak plantings.

Sponsored By

October 16-18, 2007
Mississippi Agriculture & Forestry Museum
Jackson, MS

Registration cost is $100; Register by October 8, 2007;
Sleep Inn is the workshop hotel

Visit the workshop website for complete information:
<http://www.srs.fs.usda.gov/cbhr/workshops/SPGPOP10/>

If you have no web access or have any questions, please contact:
Brian Roy Lockhart, 662-686-3171, blockhart@fs.fed.us
Emile S. Gardiner, 662-686-3184, egardiner@fs.fed.us, or
Lynne Breland, 601-445-5851, lbreland@fs.fed.us

Continuing Forestry Education credits will be available